

Sharjah Insurance PSC
Governance Report Form for Year 2024

1- A Statement of the Actions that have been Taken for the Completion of the Corporate Governance System in Year 2024, and the Manner of Implementation Thereof:

Sharjah Insurance Co is committed to the implementation of all the provisions stated in the resolution of the Securities & Commodities Authority (SCA), and has set forth the vision thereof, taking in consideration the importance of the implementation of the governance regulations of public shareholding companies, in accordance with the Ministerial Resolution No. 3/R.M of 2020, concerning the standards of enterprise discipline and the governance of public shareholding companies, in what would enable the attainment of the results desired therefrom, especially as in relation to the enhancement of the standard of regulation, compliance, and control.

Full compliance with governance rules and standards in the formation and structuring of the Board of Directors, in accordance with governance rules, has been observed to include independent and non-executive Directors, along with adherence to the creation of control and follow-up committees and ensuring the independence of internal control officers in the performance of their job tasks, as the internal control department enjoys the necessary independence for performing the tasks thereof and receiving immediate information, a thing which has contributed to the rigorous implementation of control procedures, the accurate review of financial statements, tracing the management of the internal control department by the Board of Directors, and the forwarding of reports directly to the audit committee being formed out of the Board of Directors, according to an operation mechanism that aims for a total

Annual Audit Committee Report for 2024

Based on the periodic meetings held by the Audit Committee during the year 2024, the Audit Committee emphasized in those meetings the important role of the Audit Committee, especially the Internal Audit Department in the company, through the exercise of the tasks and duties of internal audit. Therefore, the Audit Committee clarified the following in the summary of the 2024 report:

1. During 2024, the Audit Committee reviewed vital financial statement issues, including assessing the company's liquidity position and reviewing the situation of the past debts for more than five years.
2. The Audit Committee reviews and evaluates the external auditor's performance annually.

and makes the recommendations to the Board of Directors.

3- The committee relies on the following assessment tools:

A - Auditor independence: By submitting a quarterly declaration to the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors, he affirms his full independence and also verifies that he does not provide any other services to the company that might conflict with his independence as an auditor.

B - Professional competence.

C – the performance in Auditing in other companies operating in the same field.

3 - The company, through the Audit Committee, shall annually reappoint, dismiss, or appoint the external auditor, or another auditor, after submitting the necessary recommendations to the Board of Directors and duly approving them at the General Assembly.

4-The Audit Committee meets with the internal auditor on a quarterly basis, reviews his work, evaluates his performance, and also creates and provides an appropriate environment for him to perform his duties, ensuring that his decisions are impartial and not influenced by any internal or external factors, and has the right to access any of the members and the head of the committee or the board if necessary.

5 -The Audit Committee continuously follows up on the points mentioned in the internal audit report, especially the high and medium risks (if any), and verifies their causes if any information becomes clear to it, and reviews the executive management's responses to these reports. However, to date, there is nothing in the company that indicates high or medium risks.

6 - The company has directly established an internal audit charter and a risk management policy based on monitoring the company's risks and correcting any deficiencies, if any. Reviewing these policies and procedures remains an important task that must be followed up periodically by the relevant departments and under the supervision of the Audit Committee. The committee also discusses the internal control system with the executive management to ensure that the latter fulfills its duties towards developing an effective internal control system.

8 - The Audit Committee reviews all contracts and agreements that may be concluded with the company by related parties and determines the extent of their impact on the company and their feasibility.

The Audit Committee emphasizes on the importance of its oversight role in monitoring the company's activities.

d. The manner of the internal control department's handling of any major problems in the company or those that have been disclosed on the annual accounts and reports (in case there are no major problems, it shall be stated that the company did not face any problems).

The internal control department submits the reports thereof to the audit committee and it reports to such committee, a thing which enables it to operate independently and objectively, and which also enables it to interact with the CEO and the executive management team in an outstanding manner that ensures the facile identification of performance improvement and business development initiatives. In addition to the availability of the guarantees that ensure the attainment of the objectives of the company in an effective manner and that ensure a high level of independence in the internal control department's implementation of the activities and tasks thereof, the internal audit manager has a direct communication with the Directors and is functionally accountable before the audit committee and is administratively accountable before the CEO.

When the company faces some matters that are disclosed in the annual financial statements, or any other means of disclosure, the role of the internal control department in this regard is as follows:

- To enlist such matters and issues within the planning stages of audit operations.
  - To provide advice and consultancy services (as necessary) to contribute to stating such matters and developments and to finding solutions.
  - To ensure the regular follow-up of the steps and actions taken for the resolution of such matters and issues.
  - To forward periodic reports to the Board of Directors and the audit committee as in relation to the status of such matters and issues.
- e. The number of reports issued by the internal control department to the company's Board of Directors:

The internal control department performs the jobs and tasks assigned thereto under the direct supervision of the audit committee in an effective and constructive manner, a thing which contributes to the creation of an ideal work environment of transparency, effectiveness, compliance, discipline, and competency in performance and productivity. The internal control department prepares the reports thereof according to the best practices applicable in this regard and in consistency with the regulations and laws in force. The department performs the tasks thereof integrally and neutrally with no interventions or influences on the quality and competency of the reports thereof, and it forwards the reports thereof to the audit committee on a regular basis (and whenever needed) for the presentation and discussion thereof and to forward a recommendation regarding the same to the Board of Directors for taking the appropriate decisions regarding the same.

Three reports have been issued to the audit committee and the Board of Directors in year 2023, including all the auditable departments of the company, and the necessary decisions regarding the same have been issued.
